

KINGSVILLE.

Kingville ought to organize a Bechman Club.

Master Jesse McClary has been quite sick with throat trouble.

Protracted meeting will begin at the Christian church the third Sunday in November.

Our two millinerys, McClarys and Baker and Thompson, are supplying the fastidious public with stylish millinery.

The canning factory has closed for the season. A new machine for labeling cans was recently purchased by the canning factory.

Manfred and Eugene Chocolatiers have beautified their new home with paint, the color of which seems to give perfect satisfaction to all.

Your correspondent will go to Flemingsburg in a few days to visit relatives. Mr. Cummings, of the firm of Cummings & McClary, Stanford, was here on business.

Claude Hester undertook to drive one of his mules a few days since, but a runaway was the result and Claude's rubber tire was demolished. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Pleasant Point, conducted by Rev. W. R. Davidson. The protracted meeting at the Christian church, has been postponed a few weeks. Eld. H. R. Jones filled his appointment Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Walls and little daughter visited her son, John Walls, near Stanford. Felix Tidwell was here recently, after an absence of several months. Bob Adams, of Lexington, was here this week. Cincero Singleton, of Warrenton, was here Friday.

The writer wants to know why we can not have some political speaking here? We have a canning factory, a first class restaurant, Macaboe Lodge and a democratic majority (according to a census taken by Deputy Sheriff Edmund Murphy) and yet we haven't had but two political speeches during the campaign.

Clarence Dunn, of the North End, is at home to attend his sister's wedding, which will take place at an early date. Mack Williams spent a few days at Somerset last week and while there took in the Wallace circus. Mrs. B. C. Pennybacker, of Somerset, was here last week looking after her business interests. Mrs. John Walls, of Harrison, Tenn., has been visiting friends and relatives near here. Little Miss Doris Rigney visited relatives at Wall Kingsley. Mr. Vallandigham, telegrapher, was here recently.

W. L. McCarty went to Lexington Friday. The gentlemanly Mr. Chilton, of Louisville, was here a few days selling our merchants large bills of goods. Chas Evans and family have moved to Lexington for the winter. Post Dabon and wife are boarding at Ludlow and Morris Walls and wife occupy the house vacated by them. Mrs. Parsons, of near Stanford, has bought of Robin Rigney a house and lot on the pike and will move to it soon. Mr. Rigney's handsome home on the pike in "Springfield" is leaving completion.

Dr. B. F. Walter, who was to arrive here on the 10th, did not reach here until the 19th, owing to a rather serious accident which happened to his little daughter. Rumor has it, however, that Dr. Walter was detained on account of having been called to Washington to attend to President Roosevelt's teeth. While Dr. Walter does not deny it, we place no credence in the rumor, regarding him as too good a doctor to be called to attend to the teeth of a man who has been so good to the city upon to buy more goods, which he will add to his fine stock. W. L. McCarty will go to Cincinnati next week. His wife and son will accompany him. Miss Mary Sweeney goes to Somerset for a visit in few days. Mrs. Emily Good and children returned to McKinney Monday after a visit to relatives here. Mrs. Sarah Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Williams and Master Lawrence went to Glasgow to attend the birthday dinner of Mrs. Williams' mother. Mack Williams left Monday for Hot Springs. Jesse D. Wearson, of Stanford, was here Monday.

Only a Very Few Published.

It is not possible for the proprietors to publish more than a very few of the numerous letters received in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and telling of its remarkable cures. They come from people in every walk in life and from every State in the Union. The following from Mr. T. W. Greenhouse, of Prattburg, Ga., speaks for itself: "I would have been dead long but for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me of suffering diarrhoea after seven years of suffering. I can never say too much in praise of that remedy." For sale by W. N. Craig.

Robert Forbes, a wealthy citizen of Carbondale, Ill., found that a supposed nephew had purchased by him three weeks ago for $5,000 a composition metal, worth probably 50 cents.

THE GLOBE.

VOTERS TAKE NOTICE!

FELLOW CITIZENS:—A report is being circulated that I am an Infidel and took stock in C. C. Moore's paper, The Blue Grass Blade, to which I submit the following:

Mr. A. W. ARMENTER.

DEAR SIR:—You have asked me by telephone if I would not give you a written statement that you quit taking my paper because I was an Infidel. My impression is as follows: You began taking my paper because I was a prohibitionist not knowing that I was an Infidel and then you quit taking it either because I became more pronounced as an Infidel or you became more pronounced as a Christian, or both. When you quit taking it, I do not know whether or not Mr. Armenter heard him say that. The words I give are not exactly those of Mr. Keller but they are nearly the same and the sentence is exactly the same.

"QUAKEBARKER," NEAR LEXINGTON, KY., Oct. 23, 1903.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—This is to certify that while Mr. Armenter and Mr. Keller were at our house on Sunday, Oct. 19, Mr. Keller said to me about as follows: "Mr. Carpenter is pretending to be a great Christian but Mr. Armenter believes about as you do." My wife and the two gentlemen and I were all engaged in a pretty animated conversation and I do not know whether or not Mr. Armenter heard him say that. The words I give are not exactly those of Mr. Keller but they are nearly the same and the sentence is exactly the same.

I can prove that after I notified Mr. Moore to stop his paper, he continued to send it but I did not take it from the office and when I learned that Mr. F. H. Compton, the postmaster at Millersburg, was giving them out to other parties I instructed him not to do so and when a number of copies had accumulated in the office, I called for them and burned them in the stove in the postoffice. I can substantiate the fact that I have given more money to the county mission work of the Christian church than any other man.

I have not voted for any man on the democratic or republican ticket for more than 12 years; before that, I voted on both sides. I voted for Mr. Brady against John Burleigh for Congress, on personal grounds, about 25 years ago. It elected I shall go to Frankfort as a patriot and not as a partisan with the welfare of my county at heart, and will support any measure that I think best for the "great common people," regardless of any party.

I can prove that Mr. Armenter has said he was not in favor of a stock law, and in a few moments afterwards tell another party in the presence of the first party and with all the same time to the first party that he was in favor of a stock law. I can prove that Mr. Armenter has said that he was as good a prohibitionist as I am. There are other reports being circulated about me that are just as false but "Truth crushed to earth will rise again," and I harder you rub it the brighter it will shine. "To thine own self be true and as day follows the night, thou canst not be false to any man."

Respectfully, A. W. CARPENTER.

The Patricio Concert Company is brought here by the Stanford Lecture Association, which is composed of a number of gentlemen from the town and this is the first of a series of entertainments which will be given under their management. The company which appears to-night at Walton's Opera House comes highly recommended and every one should attend.

DORTY.—Our Lancaster letter tells of the death of Lewis L. Doty, who until a few weeks ago resided in this county. Bright's disease was the cause of his death, which occurred yesterday morning. A wife and a two-year-old son survive. The burial will occur in the Lancaster cemetery this afternoon. Mr. Doty was a son of Capt. J. Alex Doty, of Garrard, and was a model young man. He made friends of all with whom he came in contact and his untimely taking away is a sad blow to them. No finer young man ever lived in Lincoln county nor one who stood higher with his fellow men. Lewis Doty was a gentleman in all the word implies. Peace to his ashes.

Following were elected officers: President, R. H. Pettus; Vice President, C. C. Becker, and cashier, J. M. Smith.

HOCKEY were never scarcer in Stanford than they are at present. In fact there isn't a vacant house in town at the moment on the contrary, applicants by the dozen for dwellings. Our mounted men would help themselves and the town as well if they would spend some of their spare capital in building good houses for rent.

GOOD crowds attended the democratic speaking at Crab Orchard, Wayneburg and Kingsville Saturday and good enthusiasm was heard. Our democrats are at last being awakened to the importance of doing something and they have come to work in earnest. Let them keep at it until 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon next and all will be well.

INGOMAR—Miss Margaret Ingels, of Paris, will star this season in "Ingomar," the German classical play, under the management of M. M. McCracken. Miss Ingels is a very clever actress of wide experience and her Pathetic has been pronounced the equal of Mary Anderson's. Miss Ingels is supported by Jack Dalgardelli, one of the youngest leading men on the American stage, whose success last winter in "Alabama" justified bright hopes for his future as "Ingomar." The company will make the leading towns of Kentucky, touring in an automobile before starting on its Southern trip. It will begin the season at Stanford next Thursday night—Lex. Democrat.

R. N. ROLLER SHOT TO DEATH.—Master of Trains R. N. Roller was shot and killed Sunday afternoon at Livingston by A. N. Bentley, foreman of the wrecking crew. There were no witnesses to the tragedy. Bentley surrendered and was taken to Mr. Varney. Bentley states that he and Mr. Roller had a quarrel some 30 minutes before the killing and that Mr. Roller objected to his using the public bath house erected by the railroad men. After another quarrel, which occurred at the bath house, he claims Roller attempted to draw a pistol and he opened fire with a .44 caliber revolver, five shots taking effect. When the wounded man was reached he was lying on his face, and when turned over he breathed a few times and expired. He leaves a wife, who is postmaster at Livingston. The remains will be taken to New Hope for burial. Both Messrs. Bentley and Roller used to live here and they are well known by our people.

M. Hons. G. B. Sautley and W. S. Burch at Ben Lick Saturday, 31, at 1:30 P. M. and at Chestnut Ridge, 31, at 7 P. M.

A MOMENTOUS QUESTION.—Mr. Adam W. Carpenter, who hopes by the aid of a few more democrats and the republicans who know how to control their ballots, to represent Lincoln county as a prohibitionist in the next General Assembly, takes a column of our space this issue to prove that he is not an infidel, although he admits that he is a seceder for as he is a seceder to exist in this grand State of ours. He readily arrives at the conclusion himself that he is no infidel and having settled that question he gives his political views. Long ago he quit voting with either party, he says, but in the same breath he admits having voted for W. O. Bradley over M. J. Durham. We are reliably informed that he is also voted for Col. Wm. Harrods for county judge over his son and our county man, Judge M. C. Sautley, but he doesn't deem it necessary to mention that in his card. According to his statement he is no infidel, and he proves himself no democrat, so we arrive at the conclusion that he is a republican-prohibitionist, and being a republican-prohibitionist we think he will vote for republican-prohibition measures, should he be elected. This being the case we might expect Mr. Carpenter to do no more for the democrats than the republican-prohibitionist in Lincoln county would. Records will show that prohibitionists vote with the republicans when the scratch comes, and we'll wager that if Mr. Carpenter is elected and Gov. Beckham's seat is contested, he will vote with the radicals to unseat him. Take no chances, but vote under the roster and your vote will be counted for Mr. James M. Atkinson, the regular democratic nominee, who will vote democratic on all questions at all times. It will require scratching to vote for Mr. Carpenter unless you vote the entire prohibition ticket and you might spoil your ballot while you were doing that.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Dr. Phil Roberts, aged about 70 years, one of the best known physicians in Madison county, died here yesterday. He was a member of the State Senate from that district for two terms and was a captain in Woolford's First Kentucky cavalry. Dr. Roberts was the republican nominee for Congress a number of years ago.

Miss Mary Margaret Brothers, of Marion, is a woman whose notions are changeable. She and Mr. John Elmore went to Lebanon on matrimony bent, and after procuring a marriage license proceeded to the St. Augustine church, where the ceremony was to have been performed. The pastor was in the act of saying the ceremony, when suddenly the young lady stated that she believed she was taking a wrong step and she was wedded. Mr. Elmore testified, but the remained chaste and the license that had been procured was torn to pieces.

Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick horses should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and clear up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured. If it is possible to cure it. Black-Drain-Stock and Poultry Medicine loads the bowels and stimulates the torpid liver.
It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Restore a constant flow of Black-Drain-Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses cough, Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh.
And has many more uses. It solves the problem of making stock and poultry eat the smallest amount of food common. They can from your dealer.

MIDDLEBURG.
Jack Frost visited this section Friday night.
Rev. J. G. Bradford, of this place, is engaged in a meeting at Highland.

Another dry spell is on in this section and stock water is again becoming scarce in some parts.
Mrs. John Carter, of Burnside, visited friends and relatives here. Jasce Wesley is rustling in Lincoln.

Rev. G. W. Young, of Georgetown, held services of the International Temperance Union, lectured at the M. E. church Tuesday night to a large audience.

The residence of Mrs. Mary Fogle caught fire Tuesday, but was not attended with small loss. There was insurance and settlement was made with Agent Mahony next day.

Only one week until the election and it behooves every democrat to be up and doing and make the majority as large as the enemy will not dare oppose. They are already pecking their mouths and getting it in shape.

R. H. McAninch will move to his property near the college next week and James Higgins will take possession of his farm, which the former vacated.
Squire Turner will move to the toll house near Green River church after the election.

Mrs. Nathan Hicks has been very ill with typhoid fever, but is seems better now. Her husband is just getting up from an eight weeks' siege of the same trouble. Daniel Eason has been confined to his bed with something like fever. The other sick are on the mend.

Revs. J. Q. and Wyatt Montgomery are holding a series of meetings at the Liberty Christian church. Rev. Owens of Somerset, who has been called to the Ellensburg Baptist church, is engaged in a meeting at McKinney. There are several other protracted meetings going on in the county.

In an injunction suit between Capt.
Ed Pelley and Prof. Rector, both of Dunsville and both of whom claimed the republican nomination for Representative from the Casey-Russell district, was decided in favor of Capt.
Pelley by Judge Jones in a decision at Jamestown. The matter is not at all settled and the factions are scrapping like Kilkenny cats, and the democrats, fool like, though looked, look on without a candidate, though a good democrat could win in a walk.

There are several sore republicans in Casey and throughout the 11th district as a result of the Middleboro convention. This county instructed for Edwards by a big majority and they are still contending that he is the regular nominee and hope yet that the name of D. C. Edwards will go under the log cabin. As between Hunter and John D. White, whose device will be a double log cabin, many will stamp out for the latter. The rep. of the county and district is split in twain and there are half a dozen more factions, such as loggers heads with the other.

The series of meetings which have been going on at the Baptist church for the past 12 days, came to a close Friday night. Except for physical ailments Bro. Ferrell would have continued the service over until Sunday. Bro. Ferrell left for Burnside Friday. Though there were but few open conversations, great and lasting good was accomplished. Bro. Baker is a deep thinker and a most convincing talker. The church, while reimbursing the visiting missionary for his traveling services subscribed a good amount to the Baptist church now under construction at Burnside. The ordinance of baptism was administered at the mill pond Sunday after services.

Col. James W. McWhorter, of this city, was married Thursday to Mrs.
Melvina Jones, of the Wallacetown section. The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. J. P. Adams and was performed by Rev. J. B. Ferrell. The groom is a prominent citizen of Middleburg, known by all and is in his 75th year, while the bride, a most estimable lady, is 18 years his junior. The groom had been married about half a century ago to Miss Mary Seacey, who died some three years ago. Several children blessed the union. Here's hoping that a new lease of life will be given them and that joy, happiness and prosperity will always attend them.

Col. Morris Backner Belknap, the "great man," who thinks he is running for governor and the hero of a half hundred many afternoon spent talking champagne during the Fort Rico outing, will speak at Liberty on Wednesday, and needless to say the roads are made in solid phalanx to the spot and it is predicted that foehage and snowballs will be in evidence. Mr.
Belknap is a good business man and will put a large vote—will undoubtedly carry the "bloody hill," but it is a sure thing he will never be Kentucky's governor if only the democrats—the tried and true, will do their duty as men in solid phalanx to the polls on Tuesday next and register their suffrage for the admirable ticket headed by Gov. Beckham.

CHAPTER 60.
An act to provide for the amendment to Section 151 of the Constitution of Kentucky.
"The General Assembly may, by general laws only, authorize CITIES OF TOWNS OF ANY CLASS to provide for taxation for municipal purposes, on personal property, tangible and intangible, based on income, licenses or franchises, in lieu of an ad valorem tax thereon;

"Provided, cities of the first class shall not be authorized to omit the imposition of an ad valorem tax on such property of any steam railroad, street railway, ferry, bridge, gas, water, heating, telephone, telegraph, electric light or electric power company."

Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.
While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand.
"I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards.
To my surprise I removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by W. N. Craig.

To The Voters of Lincoln County: I find that a report is nored that I would, if elected Representative of Lincoln County, oppose what is known as the "Chinn Book Bill." I desire to say that I am in favor of that or a similar bill, which compels the public schools in the State to use the same kind of book for five years or longer without change, thereby saving its patrons a vast sum of money every year who now have to buy new text books; or any bill that will give to the people of Kentucky a cheap, uniform system of school books. I am opposed to what is known as the "Book Trust."
